Visa Requirements

The UK regularly hosts major cultural and business events attracting delegations and individuals to attend from across the world. Recent examples include the 2012 Olympic Games, the 2014 Commonwealth Games, the 2014 International Festival for Business, the latter was held in Liverpool.

It is recommended that all those wishing to attend a conference in the UK should check the visa requirements and timelines well in advance.

The UK Border Agency provides a step-by-step guide to applying for a visa via their website www.gov.uk/government/organisations/uk-visas-and-immigration.

They also provide assistance via their Consulate and UK Embassies worldwide.

To ensure satisfactory compliance with UK regulations, the advice would be to apply for a visa as a 'business visitor'. This is the category for those 'attending meetings, which have been arranged before coming to the United Kingdom, or conferences'.

Passport holders from the countries listed below need to apply for a specific UK visa when wishing to travel to the UK.

Please Note: No responsibility is taken by ACC Liverpool for the accuracy of this information. Please check with your local embassy.
